A Call to Commitment in the Body of Christ.

Last week, I began a new sermon series that will lead us into the summer that I am calling "Belonging to The Body of Christ." The Church of Christ is the Body of Christ and is composed of all baptized believers and Jesus followers all over the world (Romans 12:5). The Ham Lane church of Christ is a local body that strives to be a microcosm of the Universal Body of Christ. All who have truly surrendered their lives to Jesus as both Lord and Savior, have had their names written in the Lamb's book of life (Revelation 20:12). When we are saved, the Lord adds us to The Body of Christ in the universal sense (Acts 2:47). However, becoming a member of a local church, a local body of believers and the family of God, is a commitment that you must make.

In my message this morning, we will spend some time looking at this commitment. What does it mean to commit to the Body of Christ? Many will mistake involvement for commitment. The call to commit to the Body of Christ is much more than just involvement. Commitment requires a sincere dedication to the Lord, to the Lord's people, and to the ministry to which the Lord has called you. Commitment in the Body of Christ may require you to leave your comfort zone. The good news is that you are not in this alone – we are in this together. So, open your mind, open your Bible, use the outline in the bulletin to help follow along, and let's look at this call to the commitment we have in the Body of Christ.

HAPPY BIRTHDAY!!

Christ is the head of the church which is His body.
 Colossians 1:18 (NLV)

1. Called to a Commitment to _____.

Because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes and is justified, and with the mouth one confesses and is saved. Romans 10:9-10 (ESV)

For there is one God, and there is one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus, 1 Timothy 2:5 (ESV)

2. Called to a Commitment to _____.

So in Christ we, though many, form one body, and each member belongs to all the others Romans 12:5

We should not stop gathering together with other believers, as some of you are doing. Instead, we must continue to encourage each other even more as we see the day of the Lord coming. Hebrews 10:25 (GW)

3. Called to a Commitment to _____.

As you come to him, the living Stone—rejected by humans but chosen by God and precious to him— you also, like living stones, are being built into a spiritual house to be a holy priesthood, offering spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ. 1 Peter 2:4-5

It is he who saved us and chose us for his holy work not because we deserved it but because that was his plan long before the world began—to show his love and kindness to us through Christ. 2 Timothy 1:9 (TLB)

Instead, speaking the truth in love, we will grow to become in every respect the mature body of him who is the head, that is, Christ. From him the whole body, joined and held together by every supporting ligament, grows and builds itself up in love, as each part does its work. Ephesians 4:15-16

If you are visiting with us today, we are honored to have you as our guest. Should you have any questions about who we are or what we do, please feel free to ask one of us and pick up a "Welcome" brochure on our Greeters' booth in the foyer.
