Mothers of Faith Reflect the Love of God

Happy Mother's Day! This is my 12th year celebrating Mother's Day here at HLCC and it is one of my favorite services we get to do each year. I believe it is good and appropriate to honor our mothers here this morning because in honoring our mothers, we honor the One who created them – our Heavenly Father. There is an old Jewish Proverbs that says, "God could not be everywhere and so He created mothers." Although we know that God is everywhere at all times in His great omnipresence; we understand the sentiment of the proverb. Thank God for our mothers. I know that we did not all have good mothers and for many of us, our mothers have gone on to be with the Lord, but I am so thankful that as a church family, we can honor the mothers of faith with us here this morning.

In my message today, I want to share with you how mothers of faith reflect God's love here on Earth. Now, there are no perfect mothers, but a mother's love doesn't have to be perfect to be divine. There may be no perfect mothers but there are ways to be a good and faithful mother. I would contend that there is no love on Earth that comes closer to approximating the pure love of Jesus Christ than the selfless love of a devoted and faithful mother. God's promise in His Word to us is, "As a mother comforts her child, so I will comfort you" (Isaiah 66:13).
