A Memorial To Remember

Every last Monday in May, we observe a sacred holiday in this country. Memorial Day started after the Civil War to remember the fallen soldiers that gave their lives for their country. Today, we remember all of the soldiers that gave their lives for this country. It doesn't matter what war or time period. I am so thankful for the men and women who have given their lives so that you and I can have our freedom. Their sacrifice was selfless, brave, and honorable. Tomorrow we will remember all of the fallen soldiers in America's history. It's a special day. It's a solemn day. It's a day to remember all of the blessings we have.

We are blessed to partake in an even greater memorial this Sunday and every Sunday— a memorial to the One who died for all. When we commune together with the Lord's Supper, we are remembering His death on the cross. The bread we break reminds us that His body was broken and the juice we drink reminds us His blood was shed. We remember that it is "In him we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, in accordance with the riches of God's grace" (Ephesians 1:7).

I am so thankful for the men and women who have died in service to this country. These are those who Jesus spoke of when He said, "Greater love hath no man than this, that a man lay down his life for his friends" (John 15:13). I hope that tomorrow you will take time to remember. But I am even more thankful for our Savior who gave His life for us. I am thankful for the freedom we have this morning to meet, worship and remember Him.

Lesson 5: Remembering The Body of Christ
A Special Memorial Day Weekend Message

Jesus commanded “Take this bread and eat it. This is My body which is broken for you.

Do this to remember Me.” 1 Corinthians 11:24 (NLV)

1. Jesus wants you to remember _____.

“For you know that it was not with perishable things such as silver or gold that you were redeemed from the empty way of life handed down to you from your ancestors, but with the precious blood of Christ, a lamb without blemish or defect.” 1 Peter 1:18-19

2. Jesus wants you to remember _____.

“...I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lord’s holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ,” Ephesians 3:17-18

3. Jesus wants you to remember _____.

“Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one’s life for one’s friends.” John 15:13

“ But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: While we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” Romans 5:8

4. Jesus wants you to remember _____.

“For whenever you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death until he comes.” 1 Corinthians 11:26

”My Father’s house has many rooms; if that were not so, would I have told you that I am going there to prepare a place for you? 3 And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you to be with me that you also may be where I am.” John 14:2-3

Because, if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. Romans 10:9 (ESV)
