Loving Both God & Country

Good morning Church. As most of you know, I am attending a church conference in Ohio this weekend and this morning I am preaching for the Stop 9 Church of Christ, the congregation where Christine and I both attended in our youth. I will be sure to share your greetings to the family of God there. Chuck Thurman will be sharing a message from God's Word with you this morning in my absence. I pray that you will receive him well and show him the great love you all have for God and for God's people.

Next week, I will share a very special stand-alone sermon that I am preparing for the 4th of July Holiday. When I joined the U.S. Army Chaplain Corps, I learned the Chaplain Corp motto of "PRO DEO ET PATRIA" which means "For God and Country." I chose to become a US Army Chaplain because of my love for both God and country. However, we are living in a time where it is becoming increasingly popular in our culture to critique and degrade our country, even within the Christian Church. There are those who want to deny our founding roots in the belief of "In God We Trust." The promise of the Bible is "Blessed is the nation whose God is the LORD" (Psalm 33:12). Historically, the U.S. was most certainly founded on "Christian" principles. However, culturally, the U.S. today is not "Christian" in terms of current attitudes and behaviors. So, next Sunday, I want to share with you why I believe it is not only possible, but both good and right to have a love for both God and our country and the importance of living out our belief that it is in God and God alone we trust. So, I hope you will make plans to join me here next Sunday.
