Reaching The Nations

One of the last commands of Jesus, after His resurrection and before His ascension, was to "Go everywhere in the world, and tell the Good News to everyone" (Mark 16:15, NCV). Of course, we refer to this command of our Lord as "The Great Commission" (also found in Matthew 28:19-20; Luke 24:44-49; John 20:19-23; and in Acts 1:8). Jesus' Words in the Great Commission reveal the heart of our Great God, who desires "all people to be saved and to come to a knowledge of the truth" (1 Timothy 2:4). We are commanded and compelled to share the Good News about Jesus until everyone has heard. We called to be Kingdom Builders – partnering with God in the building of His Kingdom, making disciples of all Nations.

Last week, we saw this here in a very practical way, as we heard from our missionary in residence in the Philippines, Daniel Elamparo Jr. and his family who are visiting with us. You will be hearing from Daniel again this morning and if you missed his message last week, you could find it online. Also, this past week was our VBS. More than 50 children were here in attendance throughout the week and the Good News about God's Kingdom was shared and we pray planted in their hearts. I want to express my gratitude to all of you who volunteered your time and worked so hard to make our VBS such a success. This morning, we will continue our focus on missions, our commission to reach the Nations and to build The Kingdom with a special message I have written from Psalm 67 that I am calling "May The Nations be Glad."
