Embracing the Dynamics: A Journey of Discipleship

This morning, we continue our exploration of our church theme for the year, "Discipleship 2024: Following His Footsteps." Over the past month, we've delved into the profound concept of discipleship, recognizing that it extends beyond a mere life event or a label we wear. Instead, it's a dynamic lifestyle of actively following Jesus.

In the preceding weeks, we've journeyed through the essential steps to become a committed disciple. Understanding that discipleship is not a one-time event, we've embraced the truth that it's a lifelong pursuit—a transformative journey where we strive not only to like Jesus but, more importantly, to become like Him. It's a continuous process, a daily transformation conforming us to His image (Romans 12:2).

In today's message, we'll explore "The Dynamics of Discipleship." I am excited to share with you a simple, memorable, and shareable definition of what it truly means to be a disciple and the actions that define our journey. The promise of Jesus accompanies us on this discipleship adventure, assuring us that we are not alone—[Jesus promised] "...and surely I am with you always, to the very end of the age" (Matthew 28:19b).

Join me as we unpack the dynamics of discipleship and discover the joy of following in His footsteps together.

Blessings,
Preacher Chad
